

READING UARIZONA FELLOWSHIP

TRANSFORMING LIVES THROUGH LITERACY

WHAT IS READING UARIZONA?

Reading UArizona is a grant from the Office of Special Education Programs that supports scholars who will become practicing professionals with expertise in literacy intervention, particularly for multicultural children with disabilities.

WHO'S ELIGIBLE?

- MS Student in Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences starting in Fall 2024 or 2026
- Rising undergraduate junior in Mild and Moderate Disabilities in Fall 2024 or 2026
- People with an unwavering commitment to working with multicultural children with disabilities
- Everyone is considered! We extend a warm welcome to applicants from historically-excluded backgrounds.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- Each Reading UArizona Fellow will receive a stipend (minimum $10K), based on financial need
- Support available for building a professional toolkit
- Fellows making planned progress will be financially supported for both years of their program.
- Fellows will 'pay back' the support after graduation by working as a teacher or SLP with children with disabilities. There is an expectation of 2 years of work per each year of support.

HOW TO APPLY

Apply to the

SLHS MS Program: <https://bit.ly/ApplySLHS>

or MMD Program: <https://bit.ly/ApplyMMD>

Once you are admitted, you will be invited to apply to Reading UArizona.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

JENNIFER WHITE

jenniferm@arizona.edu

Associate Professor of Practice
Department of Disability &
Psychoeducational Studies

MARY ALT

malt@arizona.edu

Professor and Department Head
Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences

OR SCAN
THE QR CODE

WHAT SETS US APART

You'll receive additional training and clinical experiences focusing on literacy instruction.

YOU'LL GAIN EXPERTISE IN FOUR VITAL AREAS:

LITERACY

DISABILITY

MULTICULTURALISM

INTERPROFESSIONAL PRACTICE